The screenshot shows the homepage of the WIPO GREEN website. The header features the WIPO GREEN logo and navigation links: Home, Database, Network, About Us, and Join Us. A search bar is also present. The main content area includes a title "WIPO GREEN – The Marketplace for Sustainable Technology" and a brief description of the platform. Below this, there are sections for "Database", "Network", and "Join us", each with a short paragraph explaining their purpose. At the bottom, there are sections for "News" (with an "Archives" button), "Upcoming events" (with an "All events" button), and "Email updates" (with a "Sign up" button and a link to "Archive | All WIPO newsletters").

The screenshot shows the WIPO GREEN Database website. At the top, there is a navigation menu with 'Home', 'Database' (highlighted with a red circle), 'Network', 'About Us', and 'Join Us'. To the right of the menu are links for 'Contact Us', 'My Account', and 'WIPO'. Below the menu is a search bar with the text 'Search the WIPO GREEN Database' and a 'Search' button. A text box on the right contains the text: 'To submit a technology or need, sign in with your WIPO Account. List of current providers and seekers. Read the Database FAQs'. Below the search bar is a section titled 'Database categories' with the instruction 'Click on a category to show all its entries and sub-categories.' There are eight category tiles: 'Building and Construction', 'Chemicals and Advanced Materials', 'Energy', 'Farming and Forestry', 'Green Products', 'Pollution and Waste', 'Transportation', and 'Water'. Each tile has a green background and a white icon representing the category.

Join as an expert

Need a green tech expert but not sure where to turn? The WIPO GREEN Experts Database will be launched in 2017 and will help you to find green tech specialists ready to provide their services/expertise.

Registration is now open and professionals in assurance and advisory services, business, engineering, finance, intellectual property, law and more are invited to register. The Database itself will be accessible to the public and free of charge.

We will promote the Database online, among the Partners of WIPO GREEN, and at global climate change and green technology forums, such as the UNFCCC, the Climate Technology Centre and Network (CTCN), and Globe.

Register now

Benefits for experts

- Promote your services/expertise to a proven global green tech network.
- Get your services/expertise directly to the people who need it most.
- Become a part of one of the world's largest network of climate change stakeholders.
- Get straight to the person you need – specific contact details for each expert.
- Contribute practically to the global effort to tackle climate change.

How will it work?

- Experts register for the database, providing information about themselves and their services.
- The WIPO GREEN team will let applicants know whether their application has been approved or rejected.
- If approved, the relevant information is entered into the Database.
- Users of the Database search for experts and by clicking on "Contact" will be able to get in touch with their chosen expert(s) directly.
